ALWAYS LOVERS

ONCE UPON A TIME, THERE LIVED A GIRL BY THE SEA.
AND AFTER MANY NIGHTS OF RAIN, SHE COULDN'T SLEEP.

SHE LEFT HOME TO BE ALONE BY THE SHORE,
TO MAKE SURE THE SUN WOULD RISE.

"LIKE HE SAID," SHE WHISPERED.
"NOTHING LASTS FOREVER."

"NEITHER THE RAIN NOR THIS SUNRISE, PERHAPS ONLY THE MEMORIES."

But that morning the sea whispered back:
"TOMORROW IS A HOPE, NOT A PROMISE."

OK!

THERE ARE YEARS WHEN NOTHING HAPPENS,
AND THERE ARE DAYS THAT CHANGE YOUR LIFE.
SO SHE CALLED A BOY AND BOOKED A FLIGHT.

"AH, HOW I WISH TO BE INDEPENDENT,
AND NOT FEEL SAD FOR ANYONE," SAID THE GIRL.
"WELL," SAID THE BOY, "THAT'S NOT SO HARD TO LEARN.
STAY WITH ME, AND THEN YOU CAN GO AND LIVE ON YOUR OWN."

YOU'RE NOT SUPPOSED TO KNOW THIS,
BUT IT WAS A HYPER-NORMAL DAY.

EVEN WHEN EVERYTHING AROUND THEM WAS FALLING APART,
THEY COULD PRETEND THAT EVERYTHING WAS FINE.

AND IN A TWISTED WAY, THEY FELT GREAT—
JUST LIKE WE NEVER SAID GOODBYE.

III

A dark, atmospheric landscape featuring a winding path or stream bed through a forested hillside. The scene is rendered in deep blues, blacks, and purples, creating a somber and mysterious mood. The path leads from the foreground into the distance, where a bright light source, possibly the moon, illuminates a portion of the scene.

THAT NIGHT, THEY HAPPENED TO HAVE THE SAME DREAM—
A NEW DREAM THAT WOULD RECUR FOR THE REST OF THEIR LIVES.

“WHERE ARE YOU GOING?” MOANED THE BOY IN HIS SLEEP.
“GOODBYE! Now I can live alone.” ANSWERED THE GIRL.

AND THAT’S THE STORY OF THE GIRL—
OR RATHER, THE BOY AND THE GIRL.

BECAUSE IF NOT FOR EACH OTHER,
THEY WOULD HAVE NO STORY TO REMEMBER.

ALWAYS LOVERS

UNSPOKEN FEELINGS ARE UNFORGETTABLE.

An old romance is put to the test when the girl (Sarah Schlatholt) unexpectedly visits the city of her former crush (Bill Hartenstein). Surprised by her visit, the boy goes along with her plans—but quickly retreats back into his daily life. Left to wander the city alone, the girl reflects on her longing, until they agree to meet again at night...

Always Lovers is a tale about limerence and memory. Created by a team of young artists, the film paints a portrait of European youth and love suspended in an uncertain future.
